Get your Christmas shopping off to a good start with a book from OIO!

NEW: AT WORK (PAPERBACK)

Now available as a low-budget paperback. Sixteen themes including context, use and weight give insight into the working methods of Neutelings Riedijk Architects. Essential reading for anyone interested in the inspirational designers of the Y Tower in Amsterdam, the Shipping and Transport College in Rotterdam and the Minnaert Building in Utrecht.

* book details: At Work. Neutelings Riedijk Architects / English / ISBN 90 6450 584 5 / euro 24.50 / for more information visit www.oiopublishers.nl and click on 'recent titles'.

From 1958 to 1964, familiar and less familiar artists including Joost Baljeu, Max Bill, Eli Bornstein, Ad Dekkers, John Ernest, Karl Gerstner, Stephen Gilbert, Jean Gorin, Anthony Hill, Kenneth and Mary Martin and Carel Visser addressed the design tenets and underlying principles of the Bauhaus, Constructivism and De Stijl in the magazine Structure. De Stijl Continued explores their body of ideas in meticulous detail.

* book details: De Stijl Continued. The Journal Structure (1958-1964). An Artists' Debate / Jonneke Jobse / English / ISBN 90 6450 577 2 / euro 34.50 / for more information visit www.oiopublishers.nl and click on 'recent titles'.

NEW: ATELIER KEMPE THILL

How can buildings be made neutral and flexible as well as specific? Atelier Kempe Thill seek to answer this question. They recast a former Nazi hotel into the world's longest youth hostel and designed a house built entirely of empty beer crates. Published in conjunction with the award of the Rotterdam Maaskant Prize for Young Architects 2005 to Oliver Thill.

An alternative is to visit the exhibition 'Atelier Kempe Thill - Specific Neutrality' at the Goethe-Institut, Westersingel 9 in Rotterdam until December 23rd 2005.

* book details: Atelier Kempe Thill. New prototypes for a global society / Neue Prototypen für eine globale Gesellschaft / English-German / ISBN 90 6450 578 0 / euro 24.50 / for more information visit www.oiopublishers.nl and click on 'recent titles'.
